The Michael Project:

Helen (Margaret Stewart's daughter) and Dave Hobbs, who started The Michael Project, are over from Zimbabwe and will be joining us and speaking at our 9.30 service at St John's on Sunday May 5th. St John's has given great support to the Michael Project and this is a wonderful opportunity to meet them and hear about the care for children in Harare which they initiated.

News from Shanthigramam:

We have received warm Easter greetings from Valsa Augustine, in which she wanted to convey the love and gratitude of all there for our support, to all the members of St John's. She attached some pictures of the residents in the village and on their Palm Sunday procession, which we will put on the website.

This week's notices...

ST JOHN'S CAFÉ at the Watercross Festival on Sunday 19th May.

We need to start gathering our wonderful army of volunteers who make this, our biggest fundraiser, the success it has always been in the past. Sign up sheets are now at the back of the Church.

There are many ways in which to help, so please have a look and add your name to one or maybe more of the boxes.

Encourage your friends to join us - many hands make light work!

The organising team look forward to sharing this exciting day with you.

Monday Meet and Eat:

We would like to thank you for the financial help we have received towards funding Monday Meet and Eat. If anyone has a couple of hours on a Monday afternoon between 3.15 and 5.15pm to either help play games with the children, make drinks and wash up or cook a meal or pudding, please let Rosie Waring Green know as we are just compiling the summer rota and we would be grateful for a few more helpers.

Thank you. email: rosie@22rwg.co.uk or phone 07891120662.

New Wine Worship and Teaching Event :

Last year Jane and Rosie spent 5 days at the New Wine Worship and Teaching Event which we found really inspiring. This year 5 of us have booked to go for one day to the same event in Shepton Mallett and we wondered if anyone else would like to join us? We would leave about 7.30am and return by 10.45pm. The day would have 2 sessions of amazing worship and teaching in the big arena and 2 or 3 other small seminars. The cost is £50 for a day ticket and we can organise lifts.

Please speak to Rosie if you would be interested or would like further details. rosie@22rwg.co.uk or 07891120662.

We would like to encourage all of our church to pray together for our mission, and ministry in Alresford. You can join us on Fridays 10am-11am in St John's or you can pray wherever you might be on a Friday 10am-11am. Set an alarm on your phone and let's pray together wherever we might be on a Friday. Revd. Heather.

Prayer requests:

If you would like the Prayer team to pray for you, your family, friends or any other situation, please contact Rosie Waring Green: rosie@22rwg.co.uk or 01962 733237. We of course always respect the confidentiality of your requests.

The true story of Sir Nicholas 'Nicky' Winton, a young London broker who, in the months leading up to World War II, rescued 669 predominantly Jewish children before the Nazis closed the borders of Czechoslovakia. Nicky visited Prague in December 1938 and found families who had fled the rise of the Nazis in Germany and Austria, living in desperate conditions. A race against time: how many children could he and the team rescue before the borders closed?

Fifty years later, it's 1988 and Nicky lives haunted by the fate of the children he wasn't able to bring to safety in England, blaming himself for not doing more. It's not until a live BBC television show, 'That's Life', surprises him by introducing him to some surviving children - now adults - that he finally begins to come to terms with the grief he had carried for five decades.

Collect and Readings for the Fifth Sunday of Easter

Collect:

Almighty God,
who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ
have overcome death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life:
grant that, as by your grace going before us
you put into our minds good desires,
so by your continual help
we may bring them to good effect;
through Jesus Christ our risen Lord.

Amen

First Reading: Acts 8.26-40

To be announced as a Reading from the Acts of the Apostles

An angel of the Lord said to Philip, 'Get up and go towards the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza.' (This is a wilderness road.) So he got up and went. Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of the Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship and was returning home; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah. Then the Spirit said to Philip, 'Go over to this chariot and join it.' So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, 'Do you understand what you are reading?' He replied, 'How can I, unless someone guides me?' And he invited Philip to get in and sit beside him. Now the passage of the scripture that he was reading was this:

'Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter,
and like a lamb silent before its shearer,
so he does not open his mouth.

In his humiliation justice was denied him.

Who can describe his generation?

For his life is taken away from the earth.'

The eunuch asked Philip, 'About whom, may I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?' Then Philip began to speak, and starting with this scripture, he proclaimed to him the good news about Jesus. As they were going along the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch said, 'Look, here is water! What is to prevent me from being baptized?' He commanded the chariot to stop, and both of them, Philip and the eunuch, went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he was passing through the region, he proclaimed the good news to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

*At the end the reader will say: This is the Word of the Lord
The response is: Thanks be to God

Second Reading: 1 John 3.16-24

To be announced as a Reading from the First Epistle of John Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love. God's love was revealed among us in this way: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God lives in us, and his love is perfected in us.

By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and do testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Saviour of the world. God abides in those who confess that Jesus is the Son of God, and they abide in God. So we have known and believe the love that God has for us.

God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God, and God abides in them. Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness on the day of judgement, because as he is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not reached perfection in love. We love because he first loved us. Those who say, 'I love God,' and hate their brothers or sisters, are liars; for those who do not love a brother or sister whom they have seen, cannot love God whom they have not seen. The commandment we have from him is this: those who love God must love their brothers and sisters also.

*At the end the reader will say: This is the Word of the Lord

*The response is: Thanks be to God

Gospel: John 15.1-8

When the Gospel is announced we respond with:

Glory to you, O Lord

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine-grower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you.'

My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.'

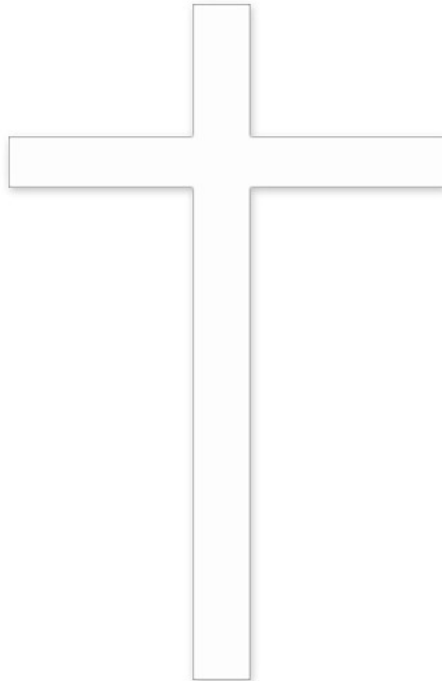

At the end the reader will say: This is the Gospel of the Lord
The response is: Praise to you, O Christ

Post Communion Prayer

Eternal God,
whose Son Jesus Christ is the way, the truth, and the life:
grant us to walk in his way,
to rejoice in his truth,
and to share his risen life;
who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

Amen

For Prayer

Hospital: Audrey Slater.

Home: George Skayman, Keith Brundish, Audrey Chalk, Hedley Parker, Sue Darmanin, Toni Booth, Maureen Mayers, Les Willoughby, Rosemary F, Tony Howes, Patricia Sharp, Sylvia Percival.

Those receiving on-going care: Janet Pooley, Ian Voak, Jilly Cowling, Sarah Griffiths.

Those in Nursing and Rest Homes: Dennis, David Ottley, David Hughes, Robina Swann, Meg Read, Roger and Jocelyn Ferrand, Pam Hatch, Monica Dawe, Moira Jackson.

Home Communicants: Joy Fox, and those who attend worship at Wayfarer's Place, Bailey House and Makins Court.

Please pray for...

Shanthigramam: Please continue to pray for the staff and residents, who so much appreciate our support, and for Valsa Augustine who runs the village.

The World: Pray for a world free from religious and political persecution, from racial bigotry and ethnic cleansing, from dictatorship and oppression. Bring before God all places where His presence is needed, especially... Gaza, Ukraine, Sudan and Afghanistan.

Climate Change: Ask God to give us all an awareness of our common humanity, of our responsibility towards the environment, and the consequences of our actions.

The NHS and all health organisations: Give thanks to God that we have the NHS to care for us. Pray that the Doctors and Nurses will have the energy and will to continue their work, given the stressful situation they find themselves in. Pray also for all Doctors and Nursing staff who risk their lives to help in war stricken places, especially in Gaza.

Our Young People: Bring before God all the young people in our town and surrounding villages. Pray that they may not be influenced by social media, television, peer pressure and newspapers to be led along the wrong path. Ask that we all be role models to all young people we meet; be ready to listen and give advice and not to be judgemental.

Our Benefice: Pray for Heather and the Ministry Team. Ask God to help them produce the Fruits of the Spirit needed to enable them to help us on our Christian Journey. Pray also that God may speak to people's hearts so that all the vacancies we have at St John's may be filled. Every job in the Church is important; all work done helps to spread the Love of God in our community.
